Architectural Sketch
Of Town Center Sign

A new sign is coming for the Upland Town Center, according to John Meyer, president, Downtown Merchants Association, who appeared at the council meeting and showed the council members an architectural plan for the sign.

Designed by Paul Hershey, it will be placed at the site of the old U sign at the entrance of the town center near the Upland Inn and consists of an attractive lamp effect 40 feet high to be illuminated. The big U sign blew down two years ago.

Meyer said the sign was financed by the merchants and was asking the city to perform nominal maintenance on it. The council agreed on the condition that it be structurally sound.

"We don't want another sign falling down," the council members said.

South Gaters 'View' Kiosk

Visiting the Kiosk has become popular in the last few weeks. Tuesday some 25 officials from South Gate viewed the Kiosk and town center with an eye to putting something like it in their hometown.

The group also had lunch at the Upland Inn and saw slides of the project.

A couple of weeks ago, a group from Buena Park came over to see the Kiosk and downtown area. While no firm commitments on whether a Kiosk area would be reproduced in the visiting towns, the tours sparked a lot of interest.

The groups seemed impressed with the relatively low cost ($280,000) and the fact the town center was financed solely by the merchants through an assessment district.

Tony Malone, chamber of commerce manager, and John Meyer, president of the downtown merchants association, were in charge of the tour which was also attended by various Upland officials.

Valley View HS Graduation Held

Valley View high school held its graduation on Tuesday evening in the main dining room of Ontario high school. The graduates were feted at a dinner after which Joseph Seltz, principal, presented the class to Alex McLeish, associate superintendent.

After a short ceremony, the graduates were presented with their diplomas by Paul Cushing, president, Chaffey Union high school board.

Graduates were George Franklin Cope, Herbert Lloyd Elsworth, Donald W. Fry, Jerry Dean McMinn, Clara Charlene Pickell and Joseph Melvin Walker.

James Hewitt AFA Honoree

Cadet James U. Hewitt, 758 E. Arrow highway, Upland, was singled out for top honors Wednesday last week during the graduation ceremonies at the Air Force Academy in Colorado Springs, Colorado, Congressman Jerry L. Pettis announced.

Academy officials told Pettis that Hewitt "Best exemplifies the highest in loyalty, integrity, and courage." He was the graduating cadet who was presented with the Academy's "Ideal" award given to the cadet ranking highest in leadership, character development and scholarship.

"I am very proud that a young man from my county was recognized in such an outstanding way," Pettis said.

Sign Committee Hears Proposals On Changes

After much discussion and many meetings, the Sign Review Committee is beginning to come up with some concrete proposals on changes in the ordinance.

One is the so called "grandfather clause" which would enable those businesses with signs conforming before the present sign ordinance was passed to retain them until replaced, and as long as they were kept in good repair.

The second proposal deals with revolving barber poles. The present ordinance does not allow the barber poles to revolve. Under the change, it would.

The Chamber of Commerce, in a meeting held Tuesday night at the chamber office, proposed 25 changes in the present ordinance. The sign review committee has proposed 15 changes.

E. Harvey Stone, president of the Chamber of Commerce, read the proposals at the Tuesday night meeting and a statement on signs and advertising. The chamber also presented a list of the cost of replacing the signs. Councilman Mike Rossiter, who heads the sign review committee, chaired the meeting which was attended by some 50 people.

He agreed that "Businesses have to have signs to advertise their wares" and said the committee was open to suggestions.

"We (the council) have had a happy relationship with the chamber and we find it is only fair to review the ordinance with those most affected by it economically." He was in favor of the "grandfather clause," and the revolving barber poles.

Two members of the committee, Frank Carpenter, planning commissioner and ex-officio member of the committee, and Robert Scudder, opposed the "grandfather clause."

There are several more meetings of the committee and a public hearing on Tuesday, June 17, with a final review by the council in July.

Class Of 1969

Congratulations on completing the first phase of your education. Your class faces a future that once was a dream of man, trips to the moon and other outerspace exploration, technological advances that stagger the imagination and the discovery of new concepts and ways of life that almost changes completely the past.

It is no wonder the older generation is dismayed.

You, are not, for what would be the purpose of all of this if there were not a different future?

As a whole generation you are termed as "lost" - perhaps this is correct. But why are you lost? Is it because you face an over-organized society that treats "you" as a number rather than a person? Or that if one of you gets into trouble, the whole is condemned?

Values that guided your parents have almost vanished. Ideas and ideals have changed so much as not to be recognizable. Are you really as "lost" as it would appear? It is almost traditional that at the age of 13, the beginning of the teen years, a boy and girl become "dropouts" from society and a language barrier is set up. Communications drop to the non-existent except for important things like money or its equivalent.

You have to dropout of society to find "you". Different identities must be tried on for size and to find yourself takes a lot of time and emotional turmoil. It is a time of self and no help is needed or wanted.

When you find out who you are to your satisfaction, you will re-join society as a contributing member. For some this comes early, for some late and for some never. If society can be patient, you'll be back and make your contribution.

While it always seems the "noisy ones" get the attention, we could pause and be reminded how many times the community has had the help of the teens.

How about in the time of the floods when long hair and all, teens flocked into city hall to volunteer to do what was needed and filled sandbags, ran errands, entertained and consoled all those who needed them, all for hours on end and with no monetary reward?

How many teens have spent hours in hospitals or tutoring young grade school children so that they can catch up and not get left behind? Or how many teens have sent clothes to other countries or written letters to soldiers in Vietnam?

If society were less critical and ceased to expect too much from the teen, he himself would find himself and rejoin society quietly.

For you, the 1969 graduate, we wish good luck, good fortune and a hope that yours will be the generation that turned the tide of history not for glory, but for the betterment of mankind.

Good Report

Thanks to Councilman Max Hawkins, Uplanders received a complete detailing of park development in the city for the past decade.

His comments and report appeared last week in the Upland News as well as the Daily Report, and they included some vitriolic words in the letter to the editor of the News, (which is his prerogative).

We can't think of a detail that the Councilman omitted and he is probably as well informed on the park situation as anybody in the city.

It's a shame that the same interest and vigor wasn't exhibited when the park bond issue was placed before the voters in November. If it had, the measure would have passed with a 95 per cent favorable vote--but frankly the program wasn't sold to the voters.

We trust that the same aggressive attitude of Councilman Hawkins, the City Council, the Parks and Recreation Commission and the lay committee to advance the bond cause will be just as vigorous in April, 1970 as it was in June, 1969. If it is we have no fears as to the outcome.

At the same time, we remind our readers, that no one worked harder to pass the bond issue last November than did the Upland News.

Perhaps we may receive equally informative reports from the Streets and Lights chairman and the police and fire departments.

Thank you again, Councilman Hawkins, for your fine report.

He Has His Day, Too--

'Scene And Herd' In The West End

by Bill Mason

FRIDAY THE 13TH

Superstitious. It happens only once this year, but here it is, staring us in the face.

Not that we put any stock in that black cat, ladder, cracked mirror superstition but w xjst/thoht wed wran yr. (Excuse those typos, please. We found it hard to hit the right keys with our fingers crossed.)

THE RIGHT ANSWER

"What am I to do with this?" grumbled the motorist as the police clerk handed him a receipt for his speeding fine payment.

"Keep it," the clerk advised. "When you get four of them you get a bicycle."

The Readers Write

The article appearing under the by-line of Bill Mason in the May 29 issue of The Upland News, entitled "COUNCIL 'DRAGS HEELS' ON DEVELOPING PARKS," contained numerous errors of fact.

Statement: "...thousands of Upland children will be turned loose for summer vacations--and to recreation conditions no better than they were four or five years ago."

Fact: The summer program of the Upland Parks and Recreation Committee has been vastly expanded over comparable activities of five years ago. Complete directories of 1969 activities have been distributed through the school system. Additional copies are available at City Hall. Thirty qualified instructors will be working in this program at points conveniently located throughout the city.

Statement: "...there is a sum of $650,000...accumulated for park site acquisitions..."

Fact: There is no accumulated sum. A total of $369,000 has been collected since 1962 and expended for park sites. Development of Baldy View Park, Reservoir Park and Magnolia Park is nearly complete. Five other sites have been acquired and await the availability of funds for development. They include: Citrus Park on Eighth Street, Sierra Vista Park on 15th Street and sites on Eleventh, Eighteenth and Twenty-Second Streets.

Statement: "...about the only park improvement in Upland in the past decade has been the "Men and Women" building in Memorial Park at a cost of over $25,000 back in 1966."

Fact: The restroom referred to also included a storage room and roof for a shuffleboard court, at a total cost of $10,400 of which the restroom costs approximated $8,000.

Statement: "...and there are no more playgrounds or parks than there were seven years ago."

Fact: During the past seven years, three new parks have been completely developed, except for minor items of completion. With cooperation from the Upland Elementary Schools, two Little League fields and one Pony League field have been added. There is now a ball park at the Boy's Club near Los Olivos.

During the past few years, the following improvements have been brought about in Memorial Park: Slo-pitch diamond, rose garden, two play areas added and equipped, shuffleboard court, lighting and fencing of ball diamond, increased parking area, lawn area increased, new picnic facilities, rest room/service building constructed, and land acquired for additional parking space east of the park.

It is regrettable that misinformation such as that provided in the May 29 issue of The Upland News should be disseminated, since there is great need for the public to be adequately and intelligently informed concerning present activities and future needs related to city-sponsored recreation, park site acquisition and park site development.

The Upland Parks and Recreation Committee and the City Council have worked strenuously and harmoniously to obtain maximum benefits from the limited funds which have been available. Objective comparisons with results obtained in other cities of comparable size would produce very high grades indeed for the accomplishments of the City of Upland in this field.

The Park Bond Issue needs to be better understood by the voters of Upland. Passage does not authorize any new taxes. It would merely make it possible for the City to save money by acquiring sites now, instead of later at a higher cost. Development could take place now, instead of waiting many years for the money to accumulate to make it possible. The bonds would be retired from the established taxes (10¢ per hundred) which have been in effect since 1962, and which will continue.

Howard J. Merrill, Member
Upland Parks and Recreation Committee

Happy Father's Day!

Dads hold jobs, fix things that need fixing, umpire ballgames, teach their children to hunt and fish and all about sports, lead Scout Troops and teach Sunday School Classes. So, on this Dad's Day we say a special "thanks" for all you do and wish you a happy relaxing day from all of your "duties".

Andy Wilson

I'd like to pay special tribute to Upland High School senior, Andy Wilson, who was our high school correspondent for the school year. He always made our deadlines, gave us his views as he saw them and we printed them like he told it, and in the clutches he took pictures for us when we needed them. His coverage of the flood helped us to give better coverage than we could have alone. He even signed on a work crew going up to Mt. Baldy and took exclusive pictures for us. Andy, we thank you and wish you the future of your choice.

Foreign Exchange Students

It is time to say goodbye to the three foreign exchange students in our town, Kerstin Lewin of Sweden who has stayed with the Richard DuVall family, Frank Gottschalk from Germany who has stayed with the Don Carlson family and Homayun Hashemy who has stayed with Rev. and Mrs. John Harrison. These young students who came to us in September have become part of the community and made friendships that will last forever. We are delighted they spent a school year with us and wish them Godspeed. This type of personal diplomacy certainly bridges communications between nations. To Kerstin we say Valkommen Tillbaka, to Frank, Auf Wiedersehen and to Homayun, Kohdaw Hawzez.

Cong. Pettis To Fight UP's Service Cut Plan

WASHINGTON D.C. -Opposition to Union Pacific's proposal to further reduce its passenger service from Southern California to the Midwest was expressed today by Congressman Jerry L. Pettis.

The railroad informed Pettis that it planned to file an application with the Interstate Commerce Commission to discontinue passenger trains 5 and 6, which operate daily between Omaha, Neb., and Los Angeles. UP attempted to drop these trains last year, but the ICC ordered the company to keep the trains in operation.

"I don't like to see any further curtailment of railroad service until we have an opportunity to determine our future transportation needs and the role railroads will play in meeting those needs," Pettis said.

"That's why I have introduced a bill to establish a Railroad Study Commission (HR 521). We don't really know what our needs are going to be in the next five, ten or 20 years. It could be that with the increasing traffic jams on the highways, and the growing problems of ground and air congestion at airports, Americans will once again turn to railroads to help meet their passenger transportation needs.

"If, in the meantime, we allow existing facilities to disappear, the railroads would find it just that much more difficult and more expensive to provide the services we may need."

Minister Honored By Alumni

Two persons were honored last week by the alumni association of Messiah College at its annual banquet. Honored were Mrs. Bessie H. Kline, of Harrisburg, Pa., and the Rev. Henry H. Brubaker of Upland.

Mrs. Kline was the recipient of the association's Appreciation Award. She with her husband, the late Josiah W. Kline, have been generous supporters of the College's endowment, scholarship and capital funds. The purpose of the award is the association's highest effort to say "thank you" to those who give to the institution.

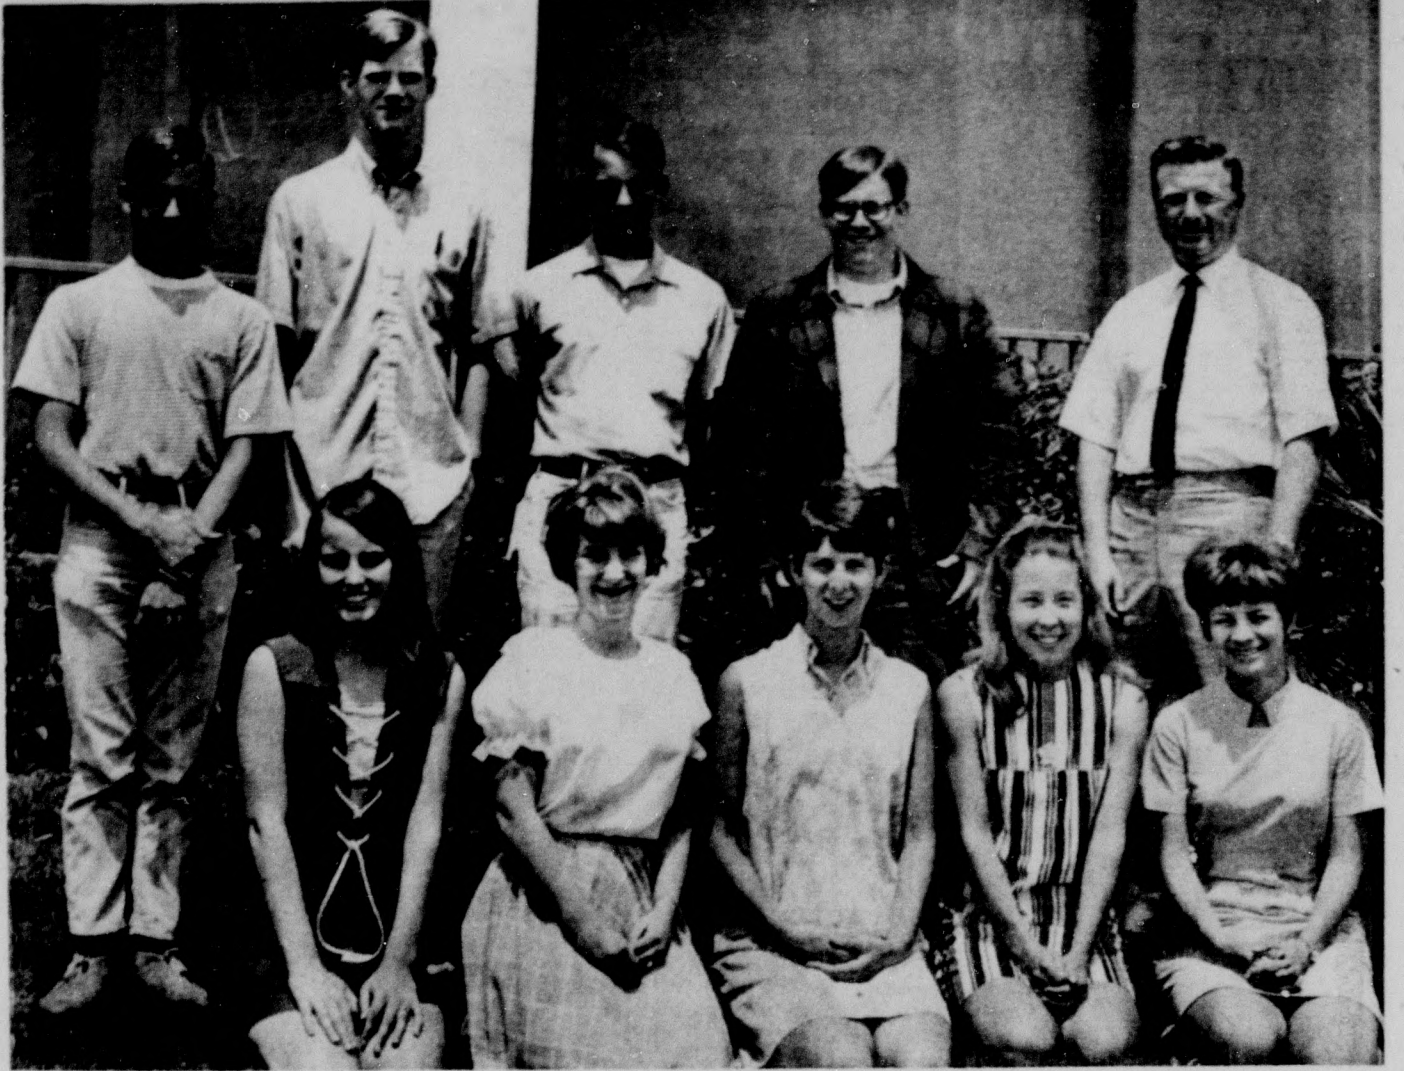

The Rev. Mr. Brubaker received the Distinguished Alumnus Award. A member of the class of 1922, he served as head of the missionary effort of the Brethren in Christ Church in Rhodesia and Zambia for a number of years. During that time he held high administrative posts with interdenominational agencies and was popular with the African nationals. Later he served for ten years as General Conference Secretary of the Brethren in Christ Church and Superintendent of the Messiah Home, Harrisburg, Pa. At the present time, he is visiting minister to the senior members of the Upland Brethren in Christ Church.

The two awards were presented by alumni first vice president Paul E. Witter of Perkasie, Pa. Witter, a bank official at Souderton, Pa., also served as chairman of the Awards Committee.

SYCAMORE VILLA

Seven two-man teams attended the pool tourney held at Sycamore Villa on Saturday, May 17. The round robin play started at 10 a.m. with each team challenging all participating teams to one game. Reche Canyon, Foothill Vista, Rancho Glendora, Del-Este, Upland View Terrace, Brookside and Samoa Village were represented.

There was a four-way tie for first place as Del Este, Upland View, Brookside and Sycamore Villa each had five wins and two losses. In the play-offs, Del Este lost to Upland View and Brookside lost to Sycamore Villa. This pitted Upland View and Sycamore Villa in the play-off competition for the trophy. Upland View won the first game and Sycamore Villa won the second. Lew Campbell and Hal Sneath were unable to cope with the shooting of Harry Ballard, so Upland View Terrace emerged the victors and were presented the trophy. Mrs. Sneath and Mrs. Campbell were hostesses at a luncheon following the tournament.

Future activities were planned at a recent meeting held at the Sycamore Villa Recreational Hall. A barbecue, hosted by Ed and Martha Gillette (space 90) will be held on Memorial Day; and a salad luncheon is scheduled for June. ## Automation Adds Impetus To Artistic Expression Automation is effecting the art program at Alta Loma High School as more students are expressing themselves through painting, drawing, and printing.

"Since the advent of automation, these students will find they will work less and have more leisure time; so art is an important phase of a student's education because it prepares him to use leisure time creatively," according to Ray Freer, art instructor. Freer has organized an extensive art exhibit of over 100 pictures on the campus—in every building and room.

Each art student has one or more paintings exhibited and the senior students have displayed their six best works. As part of their class project each student also designed and painted a poster to advertise the art exhibit.

As one strolls through the hallways, or visits the cafeteria, library or office, he becomes aware of the many examples of painting, drawing, graphic arts, print making, and ceramics. The environment is more pleasant and the opportunity to paint and draw effects each art students' future life.

When asked of the importance of art today, Freer said, "Some knowledge of art and color is good for anyone. Art will improve your general taste, and, to some, art is their only way of expressing themselves."

Cancer Caused By Smog, Goal Of Study At USC

LOS ANGELES--Cancer possibly caused by smog and other chemical pollutants man encounters in everyday living will be studied for three years at the University of Southern California School of Medicine under a $182,825 grant from The John A. Hartford Foundation, Inc., of New York City. The award was jointly announced by the Foundation's President Harry B. George and USC's President Dr. Norman Topping.

Dr. Richard L. O'Brien, assistant professor of pathology at USC, will conduct the research on animal and human viruses, chemicals in air and water, and pesticides which enter the body in various foods.

"Experts in cancer research estimate that as many as 80 per cent of human cancers are caused by environmental agents," Dr. O'Brien said in an interview.

"Many chemical compounds which are known or suspected cancer-causing agents are present as environmental pollutants. These include many used in industrial processes, some in common use as pesticides, and many of the chemicals found in smog."

"Another group of agents strongly suspected of contributing to the development of human cancers are certain animal and human viruses."

"Although many different causes of cancer in man and animals are known, in no instance is it known how a chemical or a virus causes cancer. If this were known it would allow us to design more effective therapeutic approaches to cancer and to identify other environmental agents likely to be cancer producers."

"Our studies are aimed at determining how chemicals and viruses change the behavior of normal cells so that they act as cancer cells."

"Initially we will study the interactions of cancer-producing chemicals and viruses with the molecules which are important in controlling cellular behavior. We will determine the consequences of these interactions and we hope that we will ultimately be able to define the whole sequence of reactions by which normal cells escape their normal restraints and become cancer cells."

Participating in the research will be Henry Tai, Ph.D., of Pasadena, and A.B. Sanyal, Ph.D., who will come to USC from the University of Calcutta, India, as a post-doctoral fellow.

Dr. Tai earned his doctor of philosophy degree in experimental pathology under Dr. O'Brien last fall after receiving a bachelor's degree from Harvard University and doing graduate work at the University of California, Berkeley. He attended Massachusetts Institute of Technology before going to Harvard.

Currency Display Slated At Fairgrounds June 14, 15

A unique exhibit chronicling the colorful history of American money will be featured at the 9th annual Coin-O-Rama at the Los Angeles County fairgrounds Saturday and Sunday, June 14 and 15.

The fascinating display, furnished by Bank of America, includes hundreds of actual samples of rare and unusual money collected over several years by nationally known numismatist Cyrus H. Phillips.

It dramatically emphasizes the fantastic variety of forms our monetary system has taken over the years.

Included in the attractively showcased exhibit are examples of Indian wampum and currency brought to this country by early settlers, including the famous "pieces of eight" silver coins from which the expressions "two bits" and "four bits" originated.

Also featured is the first coin struck in America, the 1653 "Pine Tree Shilling," currency issued by the individual colonies prior to the Constitution, a note issued by the state of Massachusetts in 1777 engraved by Paul Revere, and the 1787 Fugion penny, the first coin authorized by the new Congress.

In addition, there are complete sets of Confederate currency and bills issued by local, state and national banks during the "wildcat era" of the mid-1800's, and notes of the Federal Reserve Board and U. S. Treasury and even some early Bank of America notes.

Finally, there are several off-beat coins and notes which owe their value to uniqueness. One is the 1776 "One R Dollar" piece in which "currency" is misspelled.

Brochures explaining most of the items and tracing the nation's monetary history will be available to the public at the exhibit.

The public is invited. Free parking, free admission, hourly prizes. The show is sponsored by the Pomona Valley Coin club, a non-profit organization.

PV Realtors Head For Tahoe

Many local Realtors, members of the Pomona Valley Board of Realtors, will attend committee meetings and a directors' meeting of the California Real Estate Association at the Sahara-Tahoe hotel at South Lake Tahoe June 26-28. It was announced this week by Paul Jones, president of the board.

Real estate education, the new federal truth-in-lending bill, use of computers in real estate, and a wide range of other subjects will be discussed, Jones emphasized.

According to Emmette T. Gatewood Jr., of Los Gatos, president of the 46,000-member association, some 1,500 Realtors, real estate salesmen, their wives and guests, are expected to attend from 176 real estate boards throughout California.

She helps her country. Her career. Herself. As an Army Nurse in the U.S. Army Reserve.

UNHAND ME -- Cindi Musser and Bill Thomas display an intense moment in "The Seven Year Itch," which is currently playing at the Gallery Theatre, 680 E. Foothill Blvd., Upland, Thursday, Friday and Saturday at 8:15. Reservations may be made by calling 982-5357.

Air West Accepts Delivery Of 3 DC-9 Series 30 Jets

Air West took delivery of three more "stretched" Douglas DC-9 Series 30 twinjets this week - and by no means could the delivery be described as routine.

For one thing, the regional carrier flew the trio from Long Beach, Calif., to Phoenix in close formation, something that hasn't been done before.

And in accepting the three jets, Air West capped a $70 million fleet acquisition program that has added 16 of the big DC-9s to the Air West lineup in only a year's time.

McDonnell Douglas Corp. and Air West officials staged a pre-takeoff ceremony at the Douglas Aircraft Co. Long Beach assembly plant, and then the three planes rendezvoused over the Catalina Islands before starting their 350-mile flight to Phoenix in a specially blocked-off flight lane.

All three of the planes got a fast introduction to service during peak passenger travel periods this weekend.

They and their predecessors will be operated between major airports on the 10,800-mile Air West system throughout eight western states, Canada and Mexico. All of the longer new routes awarded Air West since its merger will be served exclusively by the late model DC-9s, and one of them will inaugurate non-stop service July 1 on a newly authorized route between Salt Lake City and Spokane.

In addition to the 16 Series 30 twinjets, the Air West fleet includes three of the smaller Series 10 DC-9s, as well as 33 Fairchild F-27 jetprops and 4 Piper Navajo Miniliners.

'Serenade' New Offering At Pauda Hills Theatre

A "Serenade in Tropical Veracruz" opens the gala summer season at Pauda Hills theater on Wednesday, June 11. Always popular the year around for folk theater patrons, this hilltop playhouse is even more popular in the summertime.

In the months of June through September, the audience, after each performance, is invited to a gay outdoor fiesta in the patio. They can join in games, dances, songs and refreshments, with the players, who remain in costume. For visitors to California, the outdoor "Jamaica" fiesta is like a short visit back in time to an early California hacienda.

"Serenade in Tropical Veracruz" is a light musical drama in two acts, set to the romantic music of Veracruz, Mexico. The wooing of young Mexican maidens prom- enading with chaperones is always a challenge to suitors. In the plaza, set on the stage at Pauda Hills theater, it becomes a musical pantomime with serenades and fluttering fans.

This summer play will be presented at 8:30 p.m. on Wednesdays through Saturdays with matinees at 2:30 p.m. on Wednesdays and Saturdays. Both Mexican and American meals are served in the dining room adjoining the air conditioned theater. The young players entertain as well as serve diners during luncheon and dinner, just as they would guests at a hacienda.

Patrons will also find Mexican glass and pottery shops, glass blowing demonstrations and an art studio at the hilltop grounds of the theater. Reservations are not always necessary, but are recommended, especially on weekends. The dining room and shops are open daily except Mondays. To phone for reservations, call (714) 626-1288. The theater is located at the end of Padua avenue, 3 miles north of Foothill boulevard in Claremont.

Mrs. Joseph Labarrere of Pomona was installed president of St. Monica's Guild of Damien high school at a recent evening ceremony conducted in the music room of the school.

The installation rites were performed by the outgoing director of the Guild, Father Fergus Donnelly. In a setting of brilliant red and pink carnations before a statue of St. Monica, Fr. Fergus seated Mrs. Robert Decker, La Verne, first vice-president; Mrs. Donald Karr, Diamond Bar, second vice president; Mrs. Robert Lock, Montclair, recording secretary; Mrs. Robert Gurney, Glendora, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Kevin Anderson, Covina, treasurer; Mrs. Douglas Pierce, Pomona, school activities; Mrs. Walter Laband, Covina, finance; Mrs. Dan Drew, Glendora, health; Mrs. Felix Castellini, Cucamonga, hospitality; Mrs. George Schroeder, Claremont, auditor; Mrs. Patrick Marrinan, Ontario, historian; Mrs. Henry Bastien, Pomona, membership; Mrs. Frank Bartulis, San Dimas, spiritual; Mrs. Cyril Metcalfe, Upland, telephone; Mrs. Pasqual De Nicola, Covina, parliamentarian; and Mrs. Robert Cronin, Glendora, publicity.

The mothers of graduating seniors were honored at the meeting with a miniature diploma and a red carnation presented by the incoming director.

Wild Flowers Abound In Mountains—Rangers

Colorful collections of California wildflowers are now blooming in many portions of the Angeles National Forest. Warm spring days and excellent moisture conditions are assisting mother nature in displaying this floral collection. Most of the main access roads through the Angeles National forest offer easy viewing of the many varieties found in these areas.

The Angeles Crest highway, San Gabriel Canyon road, and the Angeles Forest highway offer a large display of yuccas, also called "Lord's Candle," in the Lake Hughes area north of Castaic, groups of yellow and orange California poppies, purple lupine, and yellow flowering freemontia are still visible.

Roads leading into Little and Big Tujunga canyons offer the viewer blooming sage and yerba santa, both with their small purplish blossoms, as well as orange colored Sticky Monkey flowers. The Little Rock Reservoir area offers white prickly poppy and prickly phlox, mixed in with many other desert type blooms.

While enroute to some of the above areas, forest visitors may also observe the fragrant yellow Spanish broom and white-flowered rock rose along the roadsides. Many of the wildflowers at the lower elevations may have completed their blooming by now, but certain species will be available at the higher elevations for some time.

Forest Service Rangers caution that wildflowers are available for viewing and photographing, but not picking. They also warn that road conditions in some areas require caution, and still other roads are closed, so travelers through the forest areas should regard the posted signs.

Introduced By Gen. Tel.

General Telephone Company continues its program of providing new styles of telephones and services throughout its operating territories in California. An all new compact telephone is now being offered to the general public here for the first time. It's called the Styleline, according to local division manager, Dale Eckrote.

For instance, the handset holds not only the mouth piece and ear-piece, but also has a built in dial and handy cut-off button. With all of these components, the handset is still as light as that on any other type telephone presently offered.

"The new phone, which looks different than anything ever offered by the telephone company here, comes in nine different colors. The shades were chosen by the utility to blend into or complement any color scheme in the

Power Poles Going Underground In AL

Conversion of overhead electric lines to underground along the front of Chaffey College in Alta Loma is preceding at a rapid pace.

M. E. Horsley, Southern California Edison Company district manager, said the undergrounding of electric distribution facilities will probably be completed by the end of June.

"This work will eliminate poles along a three-quarter mile section of Haven ave., between Wilson and Lemon aves.," he said.

Electric cable will soon be pulled through underground ductwork which has just been installed, he said.

The conversion project, which is designed to enhance the Chaffey College environment, was made possible through the efforts and cooperation of Dan Mikesell, San Bernardino County Supervisor.

The project will be paid for by the Edison company. A recent California Public Utilities Commission decision provides for allocation of utility undergrounding funds to projects designated by the cities and counties.

A STIFF UPPER LIP and a fast throw by Upland Little Leaguer Greg George of the 7-Up team is always good for an out at the plate.

Eddie Butts On Team American

A desire to compete brought out the best in Eddie Butts and, as a result, the Upland High School youngster has been selected to the 1969 high school All-America swim team.

And with another year under Coach Leon Faure, plus AAAU training under Coach Bob Gross at Foothills Swim Club, Butts has a promising future.

Butts' final clocking of 53.9, good for fifth place in the CIF Southern Section; finals of the 100-yard butterfly, earned him 30th place in the nation.

Prior to his CIF effort, Butts had a seasonal best of 56.3, but lowered this to 54.1 while placing fifth in the CIF preliminaries.

And as a member of the UHS medley relay team, Butts lowered his seasonal best in the 50-yard butterfly from 24.8 to 23.8. Other seasonal standards for him were 51.5 in the 100 freestyle and 1:55.4 in the 200 freestyle.

This summer, Butts will train with Coach Don Gambrell of the Phillips 66 Swim Club, with its program at California State College (Long Beach).

Butts is pursuing studies which will lead to a major in dentistry when he enters college.

He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John J. Butts, 1232 W. 11th st., Upland.

Mark Ricketts of Lesondak and Steve Schiro of Skycrest each hit 2 home runs in last week's Foothill Little League play. Ricketts went 5 for 3 at the plate in the game against 7-Up, batting in 6 RBIs with a grand slam, a 2-run homer, a double and 2 singles, for the outstanding player of the week. Back to back homers by Schiro in Saturday's game against U.B.L., gave him a total of 7 home runs to lead the league in that race.

Other top hitters were Tony Volpendesta of Al's Enco with a home run, 2 doubles and a single; John Pignotti of Skycrest with a home run and 3 singles; Dale Wolfe of Lesondak with a home run and 3 singles; Jay Morton, Western Moulding, a home run and 2 singles and Brian Fuller, Ralph's Rascals, a home run.

Collecting 3 singles each were Ian DuVall, Steve Louderback, Rick Cairati, Ricci Borba, while Glen Shenker had a total of 4. Two singles each were credited to Gerald Wolfe, John Brislin, Don Trudeau, Chris Stadler, Cary Stadler, Leslie Lewis, Chris Hoekwater, Marty Borda to, Eric Freedle, Kevin Bennett, Kim Bruce, Jon Friesen. Also getting singles were Scott Grossberg, Andy Watkins, Scott LeBlanc, Craig LeBlanc, Dan Brownell, Tom Dease, Mike Emilio, Chuck Mycoff, Mark White, Mike Carroll, Bob Massie, Dan Monroe, Kolson Lloyd, Mike Clauer, Louis Gustis, Ed Kaufer, Bill Shores, Blake Beeman, Chris Hoffman, Jeff Sarratt, Eric Schneekloth, Bob Dungan and Bob Richards.

Due to graduations, no games were scheduled for the week of June 9 to 13. Saturday, June 14, at 12 p.m.; Ralph's Rascals vs. Lesondak at 2 p.m.; Western Moulding vs. Skycrest Ford at 4 p.m.

Bike Safety Important

Every year hundreds of boys and girls across the nation are killed in bike accidents and in the vast majority of bike-car collisions the youngster, not the driver, is at fault. Don Costa, safety director of the Allstate Insurance Companies points out,

In four out of five cases the cyclist has violated a law or traffic rule. Most often the youngster was killed because he mistakenly took the right of way, made an improper turn or disregarded a stop sign or traffic signal. Other causes include riding in the center of the street, on the wrong side of the street facing traffic or carrying passengers.

Allstate's safety director reminds parents that in most states bikes are governed by the same laws as motor vehicles, and riders are required to obey traffic laws.

Bikes should match the size of their riders and should be adjusted properly, Costa advises. Generally, the small 20-inch wheel fits the 5-7 age group; the 24-inch wheel is designed for 8-10 year olds; and the standard 26-inch wheel is for anyone 11 or older.

A coaster brake is a prime requisite for younger children. It is difficult for children to readily get their fingers around the controls of hand brakes to give a good, hard squeeze for sudden stops.

A light and a warning device are absolutely essential. A horn or a bell can be heard much more clearly than a shout. A light is necessary for both night riding and riding on dark days.

Two optional items that will help make your child's bike safer to ride are a basket or saddlebags in which to carry books and packages so that both hands can be left free for steering.

The second is reflective tape, which glows and makes the bike much easier to see at night. Two short silver strips should be placed on the handlebars, two long silver strips on the front forks and three short red strips on the rear fender.

Marine Recruit Station To Give Flag Booklets

GYSGT Ralph L. Busler II, the Marine Corps recruiter in Pomona, announced today that in observance of Flag Day, June 14, the office will have available for the public free copies of the interesting and informative booklet "Our Flag," for general use.

The booklet, which is available only through the Marine Corps recruiting service, contains a brief history of the American Flag plus pictorial examples of the correct ways to display the American Flag.

The booklets will be available at the Marine Corps recruiting office, 440 South Thomas street, here in Pomona beginning June 9.

Backed-Up Sewers

Backed-up sewers — resulting in flooded basements — can leave infectious germs on basement walls and flooring, in addition to the always-present danger from electricity in the floodwater. Reduce the hazards of germs to your family by washing the basement with a solution containing hot water, a strong detergent and disinfectant. Also, destroy food or food containers exposed to contamination, including fresh fruits and vegetables, foods in cardboard containers, bags, screw top containers and bottles, and meats. Canned food in sealed containers may be salvaged if they are thoroughly washed and disinfected.

USC Study Notes Improvements Needed In Handling Drunk Drivers

LOS ANGELES -- Substantial numbers of repeat-offender drunken drivers in California are "beating the system" in court by being tried and punished leniently as first-time offenders, a University of Southern California research study shows.

In a preliminary sample studied by USC researchers, 36 per cent of a total of 277 offenders were erroneously sentenced with minimum finest when in fact they had been convicted previously for the same offense, some of them on several occasions.

According to Jack W. Bishop, director of USC's Research Project on the Drinking Driver and Traffic Safety, the problem lies in the courts not getting information on past records of drunken drivers in time to guide the dispensation of justice.

Among the problems complicating the dispensation of justice in these cases is the "tremendous" work load facing the courts. "The calendar is so jammed that offenders are funneled through the courts daily, and the drunken driver offense takes on the hue of a minor traffic violation instead of the serious crime it is," the USC project director said.

Despite this problem, Bishop contends, much can be done to improve the court process in order to make the defendant more aware of the seriousness of the offense, order rehabilitative treatment measures, and even predict the likelihood of the defendant committing future drunken driver offenses.

"The ideal arrangement would be installation in courts of an on-line, direct contact with computers at the Department of Motor Vehicles and the State Bureau of Criminal Identification and Investigations.

Other preliminary data samplings of the USC project indicate:

--Vast majority of convicted drunken drivers are between ages 26 and 50, most of them between 31 and 40.

--About 78% of drunken driving arrests occur at night, 50% between 6 p.m. and midnight, and 28% between midnight and 7 a.m.

--Cars driven by drunken drivers are old; nearly 40% of the vehicles were 10 years or older.

--Majority of convicted drunken drivers were classified as laborers and unskilled workers. "But if we say that drunken drivers are only from lower economic groups or minorities, we're fooling ourselves," Bishop said.

When the USC project offered to provide a sample of 254 convicted drunken drivers with rehabilitation treatment on a free-of-charge, voluntary basis, only 3% agreed to participate; 76% did not reply to the offer, 18% had given fictitious addresses to the court or had moved and could not be contacted; 3% refused, and of that 3%, 1% of the total sample gave what Bishop termed "plausible excuses" as to why they could not participate.

"It appears that most drunken drivers will accept rehabilitative help only if it is forced on them by the courts or administrative edict."

Unique Benefit Of Stars' Items Due June 22

Could your wife use a purple feather from Sally Rand's collection?

How about one of Bob Hope's putters for your golf game?

As remote as these esoteric items may seem--all the powdered wigs from movieand's period epics and the monster flicks snaggle teeth and phony noses--they will help the handicapped children of United Cerebral Palsy learn to walk and talk.

Charities of Southern California is sponsor for a unique June 22 benefit at Universal Studios, 3900 Lankershim Boulevard. The 2 p.m. event has been named the "Stars Auction," so-called because gifts from glamorous celebrities will be auctioned.

"G-strings and false whiskers may seem miles apart from the gray reality of children who have trouble walking across a room," says Dave MacMaster, Charities president. "But the cost of training these kids averages out at $2,000 annually, and the auction has the very real purpose of getting these children on their feet."

Estimated Tax Deadline, 16th

Individual taxpayers who filed declarations of estimated Federal income tax must pay the second quarter installment of tax by June 16, 1969.

District Director F. S. Schmidt said today that the Internal Revenue Service is mailing reminder notices, not bills, for the second quarter estimated tax installment. This will permit each taxpayer to pay an installment according to his own records.

In February, IRS distributed an estimated tax forms packages to all taxpayers whose prior year records indicated that they may be liable for filing a 1969 estimated tax declaration. The payment voucher, pre-printed with the taxpayer's name, address, and Social Security Number, should be completed and returned with the June 16 payment.

Declarations of estimated tax and applicable payments are generally required if the taxpayer's total estimated tax for 1969 exceeds his income tax withholding by $40 or more. Mr. Schmidt said "Taxpayers are not exempt from estimated tax requirements simply because they don't receive notices." He added, "Of course, you may disregard the notice if you are not liable, but be certain of how the law affects your income tax situation."

Copies of the new estimated forms and complete instructions are available at all IRS Offices, Mr. Schmidt said. Local offices are listed in the telephone directory under US Government.

Robert Shirey New Area Gen. Mgr. For Gen. Tel.

ROBERT SHIREY

POMONA -- General Telephone Company's vice president - operations, Paul Malmgren, recently announced that Robert Shirey has been named to succeed Robert Shaffer as area general manager for the utility's eastern area operations from Pomona to the Salton Sea. Shaffer has been moved to head the company's southern area as general manager.

Shirey comes to the Pomona based operations of the eastern area from Clear Lake City,

Texas where he was southern area manager of General Telephone Company of the Southwest. He is a 19-year veteran of the telephone industry, starting his career with General Telephone in Dallas as an engineer. In 1953, the new eastern area general manager was appointed commercial manager and the following year he was promoted to district commercial manager in Daingerfield, Texas. Shirey was moved to the Southwest company's general headquarters in San Angelo as a revenue development representative in 1954 and was promoted to manager of the department in 1957.

Shaffer, moving to Long Beach to head up General Telephone's southern area, joined the utility's parent organization, General Telephone Service Corporation, in 1957. During that year he transferred to California to become assistant vice president.

Wait 10 Weeks Before Writing IRS About Income Tax Refund

Ten weeks from the date a Federal income tax refund return is mailed, the taxpayer either has his check or a letter explaining why it is held up, F.S. Schmidt, District Director of Internal Revenue for Southern California, said today.

For this reason, a taxpayer who has not heard about his refund should wait ten weeks before writing IRS. By waiting this length of time, most taxpayers will find their inquiry unnecessary, Mr. Schmidt said.

If it becomes necessary to write, the taxpayer should indicate where and when he filed his return and give his name, address and social security number.

Millions of tax returns are handled every filing season at the Western Service Center in Ogden, Utah, which serves Southern California taxpayers.

Census Bureau Survey

A sample of residents of this area will be included in a nationwide survey of employment and unemployment to be conducted during the week of June 15 by the Bureau of Census, U.S. Department of Commerce, according to Leonard C. Isley, Director of the Bureau's regional office in Los Angeles.

The monthly survey is conducted by the Bureau of the Census for the U.S. Department of Labor, and the information is used to calculate the number of persons with jobs, the number of people looking for jobs, and the monthly percentage of unemployment, which is regarded as one of the most important measures of the Nation's economic health.

The information is used for statistical purposes only, and facts about each family are kept completely confidential.

Southern Counties Gas Seeks Limited Rate Adjustments

On the basis of filings made with the Federal Power Commission by out-of-state gas suppliers for possible increases in gas costs, the Pacific Lighting System companies serving Southern California stated the average residential gas bill could rise in a series of steps totaling a maximum of about 23 cents per month, or 3%.

Although the precise amount is not determinable at this time, the total annual increase could be as much as $15.9 million for Southern Counties Gas Co. and its affiliate, Southern California Gas Co.

Any increases that might be put into effect would be subject to refund, depending on the outcome of federal rate cases affecting pipeline suppliers of the Pacific Lighting the gas for the Southern California market comes from out-of-state sources. The two principal suppliers are El Paso Natural Gas Co. and Transwestern Pipeline Co., a subsidiary of Texas Eastern Transmission Corp.

President, rates and earnings department of Pacific Lighting Service Co., said: "It is necessary that we offset these increased gas costs as such increases may occur, in order to avoid a serious deterioration in the earnings and rates of return of our companies."

Board Still Owns Old SD Bldg., No Buyer At $140,000

SAN DIMAS - The Bonita school board lowered the asking price for its abandoned San Dimas Elementary School plant Wednesday for the third time in hardly more than a year. However, trustees served notice that they had hit bottom.

The trustees' latest price on the plant, found substandard by the state two years ago, is about $140,000. The board instructed Supt. Robert W. Dickinson to contact local realtors in an effort to find a buyer.

Actually, a buyer was present at the school board meeting Wednesday night - Willary May, principal of the Western Christian high school in Pomona, who again made an offer to buy the plant for $80,000.

It was Western Christian high which had started the whole thing 14 months ago, when the school's board of directors expressed an interest in buying the school.

A subsequent appraisal by the Bonita District set the price at $210,000. Western Christian's own appraisal came up with an offer of $80,000 and three months later the district dropped the asking price to $180,000. Since the two parties were too far apart, the matter then was dropped.

May renewed his $80,000 offer Wednesday, triggering a long discussion on the future of the plant.

Trustee Robert Rimapointed out that property across the street had recently sold for $20,000 an acre, and therefore the five acres on which the school plant stands was worth at least $100,000.

He said the building also had some value and contended that when the Foothill Freeway comes through San Dimas near the school, the property will be worth even more.

Board members agreed, however, that maintenance of the building without being used was costly. Dickinson submitted a report showing that the cost, including vandalism in the past year has been more than $3,000.

Thereupon the board instructed him to contact local realtors in an effort to find a buyer, perhaps a manufacturing or industrial concern, which would be willing to pay $140,000 to $150,000 for the condemned school plant.

CHANGING YOUR ADDRESS?

Choosing the right home at the right price takes careful planning. Does it have space enough for a growing family? What about schools, churches, shopping centers in the area? Is it conveniently located? Any zoning restrictions? Is the house well constructed, easy to maintain? Is it a desirable neighborhood? Is the house fairly priced? What about resale value?

SHADOFF DOLLAR STRETCHERS

Valiant is small enough to give you the economy and handling you're looking for. Big enough for comfort and stability. And for only another $99—more of what you want. More interior room. More luggage space. More horsepower. And fuel economy. Like 23.5 mpg in the '69 Union/Pure Oil Performance Trials. More comfort, better handling and stability from a longer wheelbase, wider front track, bigger tires and torsion-bar front suspension. More stopping power from bigger brakes. And standard equipment like all-vinyl interior, inside day/night mirror and seat belt retractor. Proven reliability built in by Chrysler Corporation engineering know-how. And Valiant is a proven favorite around the world. In fact it is the largest selling U.S. nameplate outside the U.S. and Canada. A pretty good endorsement from people who need transportation tough enough for rugged roads for a small difference in price, see the added assurance of proven high resale value, and the backing of Chrysler Corporation's 12 month/12,000 mile warranty on the entire vehicle (excluding tires) and the five year/50,000 mile power train warranty**. So if you're looking for a lot more car for a small difference in price, see Shadoff!

J. Martin Voss Rites, June 6

Jon Martin Voss, 25, of 1908 Danube Way, Upland, died June 3 in Upland.

Mr. Voss, a California Highway Patrol officer, was born in Dallas, Tex., and had lived in Pomona 10 years before moving to Upland three years ago. He was a member of the First Lutheran Church in Pomona.

Survivors include his widow, Debra D. Voss of Upland; two daughters Kimberly Ann and Rebecca Lynette, at home. His parents, Mr. and Mrs. Theil L. Voss of Upland; a sister, Mrs. James Tetzloff of Redwood City; his grandparents, Mrs. M.E. Hukill of Upland and Mrs. Ilah Voss of Ashley Mich.

Funeral services were held Friday at 2 p.m. at the Stone Funeral Home in Upland. The Rev. Fred J. Landeck, pastor of the First Lutheran Church in Pomona officiated.

Good common sense dogma holds that treating home lawns can cause real trouble for dogs and cats. Weed killers and lawn insecticides can be swallowed by pets who have walked over a treated area. They pick it up by licking grass, or cleaning their paws. Killers such as Chlordane...can be just that for your pets. So it is best to keep Rover from roving about the treated area for at least three days, or until a good rain.

Quimby's Jai Alai Mutual Betting Moves Ahead

SACRAMENTO -- The Assembly Committee on Governmental Organization last week approved legislation by Assemblyman John Quimby (D-Rialto) to permit pari-mutuel wagering on the sport of jai alai.

Quimby said the proposal could produce more than $4 million in tax revenue to the state in its first year of operation and ultimately reach $14 million in revenue. The measure was sent to the Assembly Ways and Means Committee for further consideration of the revenue aspects of the plan.

Under the Quimby bill jai alai frontons would be licensed and regulated by the California Horse Racing Board. Proposed sites could be located in metropolitan areas of Los Angeles, San Francisco, San Diego and in Orange County.

"The ancient Basque game," Quimby said, "has become the most popular spectator sport in South America, Spain, the Philippines and Mexico and Florida has allowed the sport since 1943."

Quimby said Florida's old age assistance fund has benefited by almost $40 million from the wagering pool.

The lawmaker said his studies showed that at the end of four years, almost 10 million Californians and tourists would be attending the contests annually "contributing a significant amount of funds to the state's economy."

Quimby had introduced a similar bill in 1968, however withdrew the measure because of a number of other revenue producing measures that were being considered.

Honor Fathers At Community Drive-In Church

Fathers and other men in attendance at the Valley Community Drive-In church on June 15, will be a part of the 3rd Annual Faith for Father's worship. These activities are especially planned for the 9:30 and 11 a.m. indoor-outdoor services.

Rev. David Ray, senior minister, makes up a different set of Ten Commandments for Dads each year. Copies of these Ten Commandments are given to men in attendance on Father's Day. One of the commandments listed on the copy for June 15 reads:

"I shall inspire my children to accept difficult challenges as opportunities to build a stronger self." In the spirit of the commandments, a father can help develop his family into a happy and well-adjusted unit which contributes to a stronger nation.

"Where Are You, God -- When It's Hard To Do What's Right?" is the Father's Day message for Community worshippers. At the unit walk-in, drive-in facilities, attending may choose to sit in the glass sanctuary or in their own cars in the drive-in section. The church is located at Lone Hill avenue and Covina boulevard in San Dimas.

PUCKER UP, BABY -- Linda Martini of Upland and Tim Guckes of Gardena couldn't miss an opportunity like this. The occasion of the spontaneous smooch was while the two were practicing on Lake Havasu on the Colorado River, for the National Water Ski Speed Championships June 21-22.

Contract To Double Size Of OIA Terminal

ONTARIO -- The Los Angeles Board of Airport Commissioners today awarded a construction contract for major expansion of the passenger terminal at Ontario International Airport to Berry Construction Co., Inc. of Ontario.

Martin T. Pollard, the commission president, explained that the Ontario firm's bid of $673,240, the lowest of eleven qualified bids submitted, included construction only. Estimated total cost of the expansion project is $807,888, including the architect's fees and allowance for necessary changes and other contingencies which may be encountered during construction.

As previously announced, the project will almost double the size of the present terminal building at the Ontario International Airport, adding an area of approximately 22,000 square feet to the existing 30,000 square foot building. The passenger lobby, ticketing counters and office space will be greatly enlarged; the exterior covered concourse will be extended; restaurant and lounge facilities will also be extended and rebuilt.

Ex-Navy Men Can Rescore

Attention Ex-Navy: Have you heard about the Rescore Program? This program offers conversion to critical ratings, paygrade for paygrade. You could possibly qualify. If you have been separated or discharged for more than 3 months but less than 4 years from a tour of at least 1 year of extended duty in the regular navy or naval reserve, and was in a non-critical rating in paygrade E-5, E-4, or as a designated striker in paygrade E-3, it could pay you to investigate. For further details and up to date information on current ratings, see your local recruiter at 123 W. Holt Blvd., Room 5, Post Office Bldg., Ontario, or call him at 984-8624.

Work is expected to start on the project by the second week in June and will be completed in early spring 1970.

"The granting of hyphenated status between Ontario and Los Angeles International Airports and announcement that Continental Airlines will inaugurate the first scheduled non-stop jet service between Ontario and Chicago starting June 2, means that expansion plans for Ontario are now truly essential," Pollard said. "Our latest projections show that Ontario International Airport will be very nearly as busy by about 1978 as Los Angeles International Airport is now. Over 20 million passengers used the Los Angeles facility last year."

"Terminal enlargement is a move to provide for immediate growth in the passenger and airline traffic at Ontario, and is a forerunner of greater expansion planned for the airport in the near future in keeping with the 'Partners in Progress' theme adopted by Los Angeles Department of Airports and the City of Ontario," Pollard said.

Recently, the Department of Airports completed a project costing more than $395,000.

Importance Of Plants To Man Demonstrated In CP Classes

A realization of how dependent mankind is on plants for survival is the main impression left on students who take the economic botany course at California State Polytechnic College, Kellogg-Voorhis, Pomona, according to Dr. Martin F. Stoner, assistant professor of botany, who teaches the course.

The study of plants and their value to mankind, Stoner says, gives students an appreciation of the overall plant resources available throughout the world and of the limits of man's technology and ability to use plant products.

Through utilization of plants, Stoner points out, man has developed food, shelter, clothing, and medicines. But, he adds, man also has created problems with no technical solutions, and students find that man's technology does not yet have all the answers for solving environmental problems.

"Perhaps this knowledge will inspire some students with a desire to help solve some of these problems in the future," says Stoner, who received his doctorate in plant pathology and physiology at Washington State University two years ago at the age of 26. Stoner feels the economic botany course is one of the most important in the botany curriculum of the School of Science because it is taken by so many students majoring in other fields of study. He also feels it is important for more students to know about the subject because the economy of California is so dependent on agriculture; California produces about 40 per cent of all fruit and vegetable crops in the United States.

Cal Poly, Pomona is offering a major in botany this year for the first time. The course in economic botany will be offered in the summer quarter this year for the second time.

"The welfare and technology of man in the future will depend a great extent on man's conservation and future management of his environment and plant world," says Stoner.

Modern botanists are aware of the problems, he says, and are moving to solve them by technology through use of computer prediction, improved management of natural resources, and more care in the use of chemicals for the control of diseases in plants.

Man is highly dependent on the use of chemicals to protect large plantings, Stoner points out. "We couldn't carry out present-day agricultural operations without chemicals," he says.

"We try to avoid polluting the environment, but many of the chemicals we use do not break down rapidly and thus accumulate in soil, air, and water," he adds.

Economic botany is also useful to industry, Stoner notes, because by correlating the type of plant product wanted to plant family characteristics, scientists know where to look for new product sources, such as drugs from the tobacco and poppy families; timber from the pine family; or latex for rubber; resin for paints; or fibers for ropes, clothing, or matting; and algin and gums for food stabilizers in dairy products or as bases for cosmetics.

Course discussions point out the different environments generated by man's widespread agricultural ventures, such as single crops on large expanses of land.

The historical, anthropological and sociological aspects of economic botany are also discussed to show how the physical and cultural environments in which crops were developed influenced their domestication.

Objectives of the course are many, says

Stoner. They include appreciation of overall plant resources available to man, the limitations of technology and man's ability to use plant products, better understanding of current and future potentials of economic botany on a worldwide and local basis.

Other objectives in - clude awareness of changing environment in which man must survive and accomplish his agricultural production and plant utilization, the extent of man's responsibility for current and future plant utilization and its relation to conservation, and the socio-political aspects of economic botany.

YOUR ASSEMBLYMAN AT WORK

John V. Briggs 35th District

SACRAMENTO -- Assemblyman John V. Briggs (R-35th) said recently the opportunities for development of peaceful uses of atomic energy in California are vastly underrated and overlooked.

Briggs, Chairman of Joint Assembly-Senate Committee on Atomic Development and Space, recently returned from a Washington, D. C. trip where he and other members met with California's congressional delegation, including Congressman Chet Holifield, Chairman of the Committee on Atomic Energy.

Briggs said "I am encouraged over expansion and possible developments. Both the California delegations in Washington and Sacramento feel we are on the threshold of finding new and peaceful uses for atomic energy, but we need to move ahead now."

He commented that the problems to be considered by his committee include the uses of atomic energy for oceanography and oceanographic research, nuclear power generating stations and de-salting of sea water. "These areas, coupled with problems of air pollution and transportation," added Briggs, "will be with us for some time, unless we begin to apply the vast capabilities of California's aerospace and nuclear technology."

Nancy Crow Has Reason To Remember Year 1969

ALTA LOMA -- It's a big year for Chaffey College nursing instructor Nancy Crow for two reasons.

One reason is that she will be Young Career Woman of California at the Business and Professional Women's national convention in St. Louis, July 19-25. She was chosen for the honor at the state BPW convention in Los Angeles, May 17, as the candidate from the San Orco district of the women's federation.

Another reason is that she has just been awarded an Education Profession Development Act fellowship. The $2400 grant will enable her to complete studies for the Master of Science degree in nursing next year at her alma mater, California State College at Los Angeles.

BPW named Mrs. Crow for the top title in the state on the basis of such criteria as career experience, scholastic work, service to community or church, and public speaking. The title of her winning speech was "Our Responsibility in Tomorrow's World."

The BPW's San Orco district, which Mrs. Crow represented at the state convention, comprises of San Bernardino, Riverside and Orange Counties.

Mrs. Crow is also a district vice president of the California Nurses Association.

Trash Hauling Regulations Set By State Law

With the arrival of warm weather, many householders discover that the family car or station wagon will have to do emergency duty--hauling trash to the dump or delivering equipment for home improvement projects to the garden and garage.

And, in the process of attaching the unwieldy materials onto the family bus, the householder discovers he doesn't know the rules.

Captain Vernon F. Nicholson, Commander of the San Bernardino office of the California Highway Patrol this week explained some of the requirements for hauling. "Nothing can extend beyond the line of the fenders on the vehicle's left side and more than six inches beyond the fenders on its right side, or in the back beyond the last support point more than a distance equal to two-thirds the length of the wheelbase."

"In other words, a carpet or other long object cannot stick out a window on the left side, and is limited to six inches outside the car on the right side. Also, if the load that extends beyond the back of the car exceeds four feet a red flag or cloth at least 16 square inches must be displayed at the extreme end. At night, two red lights of at least six candlepower visible for 500 feet, must be attached to the end of the protruding load."

IRS To Check Small Business

A "compliance survey" of many local business firms to determine if they are filing all required Federal tax returns will begin soon, the Internal Revenue Service said today.

District Director F.S. Schmidt said the survey will take about three months to complete and will cover the 10 Southern California counties.

"Compliance surveys are a continuous part of the regular IRS program to maintain high levels of taxpayer compliance."

Mr. Schmidt said the current survey is not designed to determine whether returns are accurate but only whether all required returns are filed.

Dean Of Admissions At CC To Retire From Post June 30

ALTA LOMA -- June 30 will be the last day of school for Chaffey College admissions dean William C. Groneweg.

Groneweg, who is retiring, has served the college for 23 years, seven of those in his current status and 16 as an accounting instructor and counselor.

The West End educator was given special recognition at the annual awards banquet here, on May 27. The 1968-69 yearbook was dedicated to Groneweg for his years in office and classroom at the college.

When Groneweg joined the staff in 1946, the college's student population was 1069. The enrollment stood at 3440 in 1960 the year the college was moved from Ontario to Alta Loma. Since then, the student population has nearly doubled.

Prior to his Chaffey College affiliation, Groneweg saw two years of military service and taught at Chaffey High School for a year and at Laguna High four years. He has a M.A. from the University of Wisconsin and a B.A. from Elmhurst College.

Last September, Groneweg notified the college of his intention to resign at the end of this academic year. The next registrar and admissions officer will be Donald J. Ketchum who came to the college in 1954.

Groneweg and his wife, Dorothy, are long-time Upland residents. They plan to devote their retirement years to a home at Lake Arrowhead and to fall or winter traveling--"when schools are in session."

It's there, but you don't see it; all you see is the beautiful view outside. It's the newest thing in home-decoration, the "slender slat" window blind which is almost invisible when opened, yet closes to give you complete privacy. The new Riviera blind was developed by Levolor Lorentzen, world's largest makers of window blinds. It is made of slender one-inch aluminum slats. A transparent "magic wand" tilts the blind at a flip of the wrist; and thin braided polyester strings hold the slats without obstructing the view. Known in ancient times, slat blinds are still one of man's best means of controlling light, ventilation, and privacy when it comes to windows. Now that they offer no obstruction to the view, decorators are using them in all decorator colors in all types of new decor.

Economic Development Comm. Names Redlands Man As Head

Leroy Hansberger, a prominent Redlands civic and business leader and member of the San Bernardino County Economic Development Commission from the Third Supervisorial District, was elected President of that body yesterday. John J. Joppe, Editor of the Ontario Daily Report, representing the Second District, was elected Vice President.

Hansberger, who was appointed to the Commission in November, 1967, by former Supervisor Wesley Break and continued in the position by his successor, Don Beckford, replaces former member Earl Reynolds of the Fifth District as President. Reynolds, who resigned earlier this year because of an extended assignment out of the country, was recently replaced by Supervisor Nancy Smith's appointment of Stanley Lemmond an executive of the Bank of California. The Fourth District is represented by Milton Lietzow, prominent Fontana businessman and former Mayor. The First District seat on the commission was vacated last fall by the resignation of longtime commissioner Olin Halstead of Victorville for whom a successor has yet to be named.

Yesterday's meeting of the Commission was devoted principally to routine business. However, Economic Development Commission Director Arthur B. Groos did take the occasion to announce that the package of three "Pleasing" any Season's tourist brochures received an Honorable Mention award in the American Industrial Development Council's Literature Award Program at the AIDC's recent annual convention in Miami. There were more than 200 entries in the competition.

The brochures, similar in design but in contrasting colors, respectively describe the County's golf, skiing and water sport facilities.

Chaffey Tutorial Corpsmen Teach Reading

ALTA LOMA -- Nearly 100 Chaffey College students this semester helped develop the reading skills of grade school pupils in six communities--personally.

The students worked for neither pay nor credit in their spare hours under the direction of the teachers and counselors in nine elementary schools and a community center.

Their recompense was the satisfaction of helping the very young and the very frustrated to a better understanding of the printed word and the great world around them.

Chaffey's community tutorial program was pioneered by Donald E. Bartell, professor of history, starting in the fall of 1967 with 25 volunteers. By the spring of 1968, the roster had grown to 45. The student corps then swelled to 62 last fall and to 91 this spring.

In the academic year ahead, Bartell expects the number of volunteers to go well beyond 100.

Since the inception of the program, the tutorial corpsmen have invested a minimum of three hours weekly in person-to-person reading instruction. Their instruction is a human kind of thing--sustained individual contact with pupils in need of reading help and personal attention.

In the year just ending, they helped pupils make the grade in reading at nine elementary schools. The schools were Redwood, Juniper and North Tamarind, (Pontana), Sultana, Bon View and South Euclid, (Ontario), Kingsley, (Montclair), Lincoln, (Corona), and Upland Elementary.

The Chaffey volunteers gave their time and attention also to young persons at the Chino Social Services Council.

And they tried something else this year as a corollary of the program. It was tutoring the gifted pupils at Upland Elementary in literature, art and history.

Bartell attributes the success of the program to the fact that it establishes a personal learning relationship between tutor and pupil based on friendship and trust. Therefore, the relationship becomes something more than a means of developing a reading skill.

He emphasizes that each tutor be sensitive to his pupil's problems, hopes, desires, frustrations and goals. "Try to be a friend," he admonished.

In imparting instruction to grade school kids in this human fashion, Chaffey volunteers, too, are learning something of the world around them. The experience has persuaded many of them to choose a teaching career.

Litter Bag May Save You Fine

It's a good idea to carry a litter bag in the automobile, especially now that picnic weather is here," Captain Vernon F. Nicholson, Commander of the San Bernardino area of the California Highway Patrol advises.

Two sections of the California Vehicle Code prohibit throwing things on highways, he said.

"Section 23112 prohibits throwing bottles, cans, garbage, glass, paper, or any subject likely to injure or damage traffic, or any offensive material of any kind, while Section 23111 prohibits throwing lighted cigarettes, cigars, ashes or other flame or glowing substances onto the highway."

"These laws are enforced. But if drivers and passengers in vehicles use ash trays and keep other litter in a bag we'll have nothing to enforce, and that will suit us just fine."

The CHP commander also noted that citizens can assist in enforcing Section 23111 by reporting to the Department of Motor Vehicles the license number of any motor vehicle from which they see flaming or glowing substances thrown. The Department of Motor Vehicles will pass this with the name of the registered owner of the vehicle, to the State Division of Forestry, who will take appropriate action against the violator.

HEALTH HINTS

FOOD POISONING -- unwelcome guest.

Planning a picnic this weekend?

If you're the typical picnicker, you'll probably load your basket with deviled eggs, potato salad, ham or chicken salad sandwiches, creamed or scalloped dishes, and cream - filled deserts. If you do take a food basket like that to a picnic, you're flirting with food poisoning.

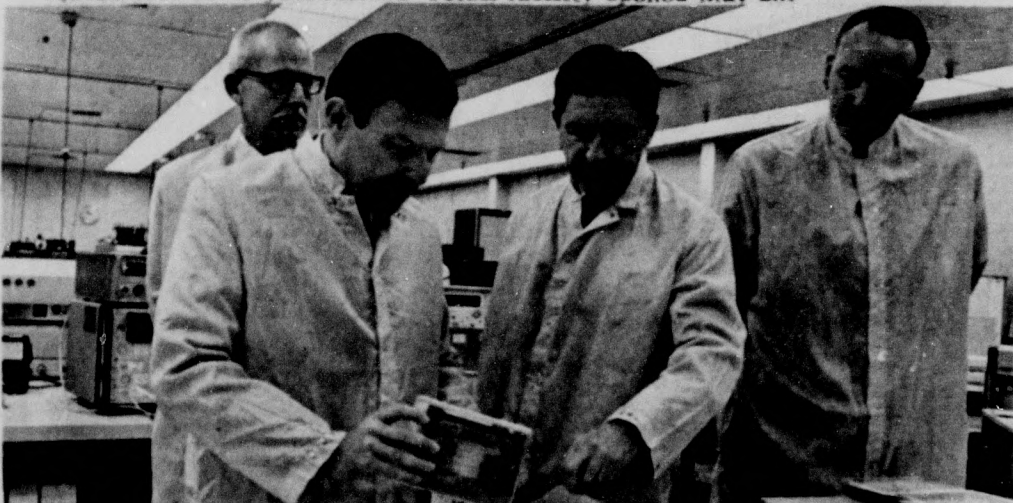

The most common cause of food poisoning is staphylococic bacteria. The staph germs are likely to be found in starchy foods and sweets, such as potatoes, cream pies and custards.

Salmonella, another bacteria that can cause food poisoning, may be present in poultry, eggs, meat, potato salads and other foods when they're not properly refrigerated. Staph poisoning can hit in as short a time as two hours, and salmonella poisoning develops between seven and seventy-two hours.

The cook-out type of picnic is the safest.
